BCCA NEWS LETTER
November 2019

Fifth Amendment Voting

- If you are an owner against smoking marijuana within the units, vote YES to amend the Association Declaration.
- Cast your vote by attending the Nov. 12th meeting at 7 p.m. at 2500 Archbury.
- If you can't attend the meeting, fill out the Proxy form you received and drop it off at the office or give it to your building representative.

Thank You

- Thank you to all of the residents who helped provide and/or distribute candy to our trick-or-treaters. There was a great turn out.
- Thank you to Jackie Zamiechowska and all her helpers who kept the planted pots and gardens looking beautiful this summer.

Winter Parking Ban

- Please observe the winter parking bans. The "No Parking On Snowy Days" signs have been installed and will be in effect until April 15th.
- There is no street parking 24 hours after a snowfall so that our plows can clear our streets.
- There is no parking at any time at the entrances and exits on Thames and Ascot, to provide easy access.
- The no parking ban is in effect when a Robo call is sent or a no parking notice is posted in the buildings.
- If a vehicle interferes with snow plowing it will be ticketed and may be towed.

Renovation Restrictions

- Water shut-offs are not allowed during the weeks of Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Years, except in case of emergency.
- No construction is allowed the day before, the day of, or the day after Thanksgiving, Christmas, or New Years.

Notify the Office

- If you are going away, please notify the BCCA office.
- Leave a key in the Office or with a neighbor in case of emergencies.
- When leaving your vehicle on the premises while traveling, please park in your assigned space or at the ends of the behind the building parking

Live Holiday Trees

Live trees are not allowed to be used for holiday decorations.

Be Vigiliant

- Keep watch for holiday packages and pick them up ASAP. Or have your packages delivered to your place of work.
- BCCA is not responsible for any deliveries

Happy Thanksgiving
